“ I did not work with John directly at Cardinal very often during our time there together, but I certainly remember his kindness, and his character was evident to all he engaged with. My sympathies for your loss.

“ John’s ready smile, his welcome and his intense love for his family have so enriched this world of ours. May he find warm welcome on the other side of the thin veil that separates this world from the next. He will always remain near those he has so loved! You are held in my prayer.

“ I only worked with John a short time at Cardinal Bank, our departments were right next to one another and we occasionally overlapped when there was need. I remember him as a nice guy, quiet unless he and coworkers got to talking sports then the conversations got lively. He will be missed. My thoughts and prayers are with you.
