“ I have so many wonderful memories of "Papa", as I knew him. His wonderful smile, his kindness to me and his love for his family. I remember him singing in the old sanctuary at Greenwich Presbyterian Church and his Cribbage skills. I also remember his talent with flowers. One time in Florida I remember being impressed because he ate raw garlic at dinner. He was a very special person. I am grateful that I got to know him. As a young teenager, I didn't really know about all of his accomplishments with music and the Navy. I really appreciated reading his obituary and understanding that a little more now. My thoughts are with his wonderful family as they grieve and celebrate his life.

Love in Christ,

Dear Sharron, Linda, and family. I learned that your dad passed away when I stumbled upon his obituary on the internet.

He was among my favorite people in the whole world. Ever since I was a little girl, I thought he was the "perfect dad." I will always remember his intellect, kindness, and genuine interest in others.

In the past year, your dad spoke with me on the phone about his love for botanicals and music. He helped me emotionally concerning my mom and dad.

You two girls and your mom and dad have brought much joy to my family and to me. My heart goes out to you.

Love,

“ *To Sharon and family
I am so,so sorry to here of your father's death. I am sure he will be missed. I have nothing but fond memories of your parents. I remember so vividly the time Sharon and I went to florida on a business trip and we stayed at her parents house. Your dad was so hospitable. He was a great cook. He fixed the greatest steak I ever had! My thoughts are with you and your family.
Love you Sharon. Dianna Lewis*
