

Johnny Roland Ling

March 30, 1932 - February 7, 2026

Johnny Roland Ling, 93 of Manassas, Virginia, passed away on February 7, 2026.

Johnny was born on March 30, 1932 to Frank and Hazel Ling of Atlanta, Georgia. He is preceded in death by his parents and his brothers, Robert and Jerry. Johnny graduated from West Fulton High School and from Southern Polytechnic State University. He enlisted and served as a Staff Sergeant in the Air Force and after being honorably discharged, served in the Air Force reserves. Johnny married Betty Jane Wallace in 1953 and they raised two sons, Jeffery and Gary. Johnny worked for Western Union in the Government Systems division installing the Autodin computer system in Military bases across the US. Later on he worked in military communications for several companies before retiring at the age of 62.

Johnny's faith was a vital part of his life. He and Betty were founding members of Burke Community Church in Burke, Virginia. They served in numerous ways and Johnny served a term as an Elder. In later years they attended Clear River Community Church in Manassas, Virginia.

He is survived by his wife Betty J. Ling; sons Jeff (Elizabeth) Ling and Gary (Irene) Ling; grandchildren Matthew (Heidi) Ling, Andrew (Maria Cabanas) Ling, Megan (Troy Binkley) Ling, Jennifer (Aaron) Brown, Rebecca Ling, and great grandchildren Beckett, Jayden, Eli, Teegan, Tanna, Norah and Autumn.

Johnny is beloved by his family and friends. His life was marked by his wisdom, faithfulness, generosity and kindness.

His funeral will be Saturday, February 14th at 11:30am at Clear River Community Church in Manassas, Va. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to C.R.E.M.I (Clear River Equipping Ministries International - 9817 Godwin Dr. Manassas, Va. 20110)
