

Jon Bernard Irrig

November 19, 1960 - December 30, 2019

We lost John Bernard Irrig, age 59, of Manassas Virginia on December 30, 2019. Jon was born on November 19, 1960 in Miami Florida with his twin Christopher William Irrig currently of Philomath, Oregon.

Jon moved across the country with his mother and father Bill and Nancy Irrig living in Maine, Louisiana, Oregon, Missouri and finally settling down in Northern Virginia.

Jon lived a full life. He was a business partner with his father for many years and eventually became the sole owner and operator of the business. He was an achieved craftsman within his trade and sought after artisan of wood. Jon was generous with his love, his time, and his devotion to his family. Jon was a member of the Sons of the American Revolutionary War as well as Sons of the Union Veterans.

Jon is survived by his wife April Shew and their children Mikie, Sarah, Scarlett and Kyle. He was preceded by his daughter Abigail.

He leaves behind his father William J. Irrig of Burke, Virginia, brother Mark and family of Michigan, brother Christopher and family of Oregon, sisters and families of Stephanie and Heide both of North Carolina, and several nieces and nephews all valued by Jon. He always took great pride in his home and care of his family.

Jon your life was truly a blessing, the memory of you is a treasure and you are loved and missed beyond measure.
