“ Jon Sr.,

I just heard the news of your loss...I am so sorry to hear this. I look at your son's picture and see you in his eyes. I am sorry that I didn't have the opportunity to meet him but I know that you would have raised a fine man. We haven't seen each other or spoken in years but friendship runs deep. My heart goes out to your whole family and prayers go up for all of you. Your McKinney friends are still here...in your own time we would love to hear from you.

God Bless you and your family,

“ Jon Sr., It has been a very long time since I have seen you old friend. I wanted to say that I am so sorry to hear of your tragic loss. Prayers and love are being sent for you and your family from your McKnney friends. You have been heavy on my mind lately and a couple weeks ago I posted on FB asking if anyone knew how you were doing. I recieved the news today about your son from Sondi Cooper. Please know we are thinking of you during this difficult time. You see the ties of a true friend can never be broken.

“ Tina, a message from Shirlie she wanted me to share with you and the children. I know your heart is feeling heavy. My hope and prayer for all of you is that each day your hearts will feel lighter and lighter from the loss you are feeling, until one day only sweet memories remain to comfort you. Love you all! Shirlie

“ Any man can become a father but it takes a Special man to become a Daddy and that's you Jon. Jon was a Wonderful husband to Tina and a Great father to his children. I admire Jon he was a Kindhearted Amazing young man. Who loved and did his hardest to take good care of his family. Sweet young man who's life was taken to soon! God got hisself an Special Angel! Rest In Peace Jon!

“ Jon was more than my husband he was my best friend he showed me that life was meant to live happy and that all that was required is family love. He was the kindest hearted man who cared about us more than anything. I will never forget everything he taught me because we not only loved each other but grew up learning life lessons from one another. I won't ever forget his love and what it has always shown me that happiness can be found and love at first sight is real. I love you baby and you will be with me everyday.
