“Dad we miss you more than any words can say. Our hearts ache for you, but now you can rest. I pray there is music where you are and that your spirit is free and you are dancing like you used to. Your voice echos in my ear as if you were still here with us. You wanted us to always be laughing and smiling because you hated to see us cry. You always told me what I needed to do and it seems the seeds you planted are still with me after you are gone. We will go forward and make you proud. Until we meet again Pops, I will take care of Mom like I promised. Rest, dance, laugh and know that we loved you so much.

Dad, I will now break the news to Samantha that I was your favorite.
Love You Forever, Dad!

Carmen & Family,

In loving Memory of your Husband, Father and Grandfather. Your husband is, and always will be, a ray of sunshine in an otherwise cloudy day. He will be missed without measure. Nothing will ever replace the space in your heart that your husband occupied. If you keep that space filled with his memory and your experience together, he'll always be there with you and the family. My prayers and thoughts are with you, Jaclyn, Samantha and the granddaughters during your time of mourning. God Blessed.
