

Jose Everson Martinez Lozano

February 20, 1990 - October 21, 2020

On a beautiful Tuesday on February 20, 1990, Jose Everson Martinez Lozano entered this world. Jose was born in El Salvador and lived in Sterling, Va for most of his life. Jose passed away unexpectedly, at the age of 30, on October, 21, 2020.

With him, he brought an endless amount of love, joy, and laughs to share with everyone around him. From the very beginning, Jose habitually expressed his love for soccer. Jose shared stories of his years on the soccer field with pride. In his last days, the passion that he had towards soccer was still very evident. Jose was one of a kind. One of Jose's many talents was making people smile. Jose was a very humble person and extremely outgoing.

Jose is survived by his mother Lucia Argueta and step-father Jose Luis Argueta; Brothers, Levy and William and nieces, nephews and friends. Jose knew how to make you laugh if you were having a bad day. Jose will be nearly missed by all his family and friends.
