

Jose Evangelista Sadorra JR

November 4, 1938 - June 18, 2023

On January 18, 2023, Jose E. Sadorra Jr, 84 of Manassas, Virginia passed away peacefully at home and in the arms of his family as he wished, surrounded by his wife, Teresita (Decena), daughters Rowena, Ronalie with husband Ernesto, and Roselle, grandchildren Jose, Jeyein, Davon, David and Isaac by his side.

Jose is the eldest son and is survived by 9 living siblings from a brood of 11 born of Carolina Evangelista and Jose M. Sadorra Sr. Of Mangatarem, Pangasinan, Philippines.

He is very much missed and fondly remembered for all his heart, wisdom and life experiences he so lovingly shares with those closest to him.

He moved to Virginia, USA in 2005 after prompting from his kids to be reunited with his daughters who have all migrated over a decade before him.

He holds in his time a Bachelors degree in Business Administration and was a CPA in his time having worked in several different countries in Asia and the Middle East.

Following his typical no pompous and elaborate circumstance stand on most things, we appreciate prayers said for him as we undertake the Herculean and seeming insurmountable task of grieving his passing and our loss of a great father, husband and grandfather and more importantly, a man of God who has lived his life always walking that fine line following his words and teachings. He is forever missed and lovingly remembered by those who loves him and he loves back.
