

Joseph Edmund Gallihugh

August 31, 1978 - July 19, 2023

Joseph Edmund Gallihugh, age 44, died peacefully on Wednesday, July 19, 2023, surrounded by family. Joseph was born August 31, 1978, in Manassas, Virginia, and was known as JoJo to some family members and Joe to others. Joseph enjoyed spending every moment possible with his children, hanging out, taking them to the pool and going on yearly family beach trips. He looked forward to homemade cookies, a nutroll at Christmas time, homemade sausage bread any time of the year and homemade spaghetti dinners. He also looked forward to his weekly visits to his Granny and Pappap to cut their grass. Joseph loved watching movies, Jeopardy, Friends, the First 48, and college basketball. He cheered for the Redskins, Capitals, Nationals and Kyle Busch. He was a member of International Union of Elevator Constructors Local 10 since 2001.

Joseph was a hard-working, simple man with the biggest heart and an abundance of love for his family. He always had a great smile and brought laughter to our hearts.

Joseph was adored by his fiancée, Kelly Simpson, and his dog, Piper. Joseph is also survived by his children, Kyle and Emma; mother and step-father, Mary Lynn and Terry McGaffic; brother, Christopher Gallifrey; sister, Dacotah Cooper (Caleb) and his niece, Everleigh; his father and step-mother, Larry and Brenda Gallihugh; brother, Michael; maternal grandparents, Lawrence and Monica Kattner; paternal grandparents, William and Margaret Gallihugh; and numerous aunts, uncles and cousins.
