“ Dear Anne, Steven, Leslie and Sara Jane, We are so sorry for your loss. Joe's infectious laughter and smiles will be missed. Joe was sincerely a 'good guy'. It's not often we meet men of such high character and we are thankful he shared that with us and passed it along to you. We are sure he touched many, many lives in his professional career as he did in his private life. It was obvious to all he met that he loved his family deeply. May you find peace in the year ahead and take comfort in the great memories he leaves behind. His spirit will always be with you.

“ Anne and Family,

My deepest sympathy and condolences. He was such a great guy - always a pleasure to be in his company. Glad I was able to visit him a few times over that last few months. We will all sorely miss him. His sense of humor was so terrific. His dedication to the Army, police department, the FBI, and the American Legion was always with vigor.

Anything that I can do, at anytime, please just ask.

“ Prayers and thoughts are with you during this most difficult time. Joe was a great guy and will be sorely missed by all that had the opportunity to know and work with him. (I worked with Joe for over ten years.) He was also a "great" McGruff. Anne, you were his life; he talked about you constantly. Nancy Ward

“ Dear Anne, Steven and Leslie, It goes without saying that it was terribly saddening to observe Joe fight so valiantly for his life for so long while he was experiencing so much pain and discomfort for so many months before he succumbed to the dreadful cancer of which he was a victim. Mere words at times such as this seem to be so terribly inadequate but, hopefully, you may be able to gain some degree of comfort by just knowing that I, and so many others who were privileged to have known him, share in your sorrow and are with you in sympathy and friendship. My deepest condolences to you and your famiiy! Denny Kurre

Anne, Steven and Leslie,

It was my pleasure to serve and work with Joe in the FBI and Post 56. He truly loved his family, his comrades and his country. He will be missed by many for his gentle grace and easy sense of humor. Those who saw him in his struggles over the past several months can take solace in knowing he is no longer in pain and is with his Lord. His passing during the holiday season has been an especially difficult burden for you to bear. Please know that our prayers and thoughts are with all of you at this time and in the coming year.

Dear Anne, Leslie, Steven and Sarah...

There is a special place in heaven just for "Joe". Family memories, laughter, love and caring words are forever engraved on my heart. I'm grateful to have shared these times with him. Duly noted, grammy Ethel (Harpold), mother Gwen (Lund), uncle Leroy (Post) all shared wonderful compliments of Joe and his kind ways. His legacy of strong ethics, integrity, humor and wisdom lives on! Praying for peace in your hearts.
