“ You are the Best Father a child could ask for. I watched the Light in her eyes gleam every single time she was able to spend a minute with you. Jaya loved you unlike I've ever seen a child love a parent. She loved you the way I loved my father. I know that bond was something sacred & irreplaceable. You, Joe are irreplaceable. You are the love of my life.

I will always be in love with you.

I am blessed to have Jaya, to carry a piece of you with me every day. Thank you for the things you did give that can not be given in a material way. Your eyes, your smile, your sense of humor are rooted into that little girls being, her soul will forever be waiting to reunite with yours, as will mine. I love you, so very much.

Please come to her in her dreams. Be the butterflies in her belly, the beauty she sees on this earth like a rare beautiful rainbow on a hot rainy day, whips of wind that blow leaves around her body and the Hawks that swoop in front of her eyes unexpectedly & absolutely mystical.

She knows you are a part of those moments, again as do I, We Love You.

I will call for you as I have and take the advice I hear knowing your guiding me in finding a way to keep her heart full of Happy, Healthy Fond Memories flowing through me by your love and through your soul, I will give your family a treasured gift of the 12, well...15 years we shared I have collected.

You would want this, I know.

I know more than you let anyone else see.

Why, do they not know we still loved eachother?

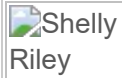

Thank you for letting that be our last words that morning

Gifts will come to the Homes of your Mother & Father and those special people I know you would like me to share them with.

Love,

*Jaya & Mommy *Angie

“ Joe worked for my family at Greenville Farm for a few years. He was a great worker and had a heart of gold. He would do anything for you, which included giving you the shirt off his back. He truly loved his two daughters, his eyes would light up when he would talk about them. He will be missed. Prayers are being sent to his family.

“ I met Joe many years ago when we lived across the street from each other on Baker Street. I bought a puppy from him for my granddaughter. She named her Binky and she lived a long full spoiled life. I will remember his kindness and that wonderful smile. My condolences to the family and friends. He will be missed.
