“ Well I don't even know where I should begin. I was Joe's #2 man when he became a foreman a Payne's. I remember the long truck trips to Arlington and the laughter that he caused all the way to the job. We kinda fell off a little bit when i moved to WV. Probably the most fond memory of Joe was the last day he was a foreman that he suprised he whole crew with KFC. Not to mentioned how he called me fathead all the time in our random back-and-forth's. He pretty much was the reason I had pushed myself to become a foreman myself. (even though for short period of time) He told me "JR if I can do it , u can do it" , those words of inspiration made me push myself to the leadership role that I so badly wanted. He always calmed me down and made me think things more clearer when me and my fiance were at witt's end. I have my regrets of not keeping in contact with him as much as I feel I should have. Guess just roughly sayin I guess I just wanted 1 last chance to say Goodbye Joe. And thanks for the advice you have given me, I will surely use every last piece of your advice and apply it to my life as best I can. We miss you dude. -JR-

“ Joe, we had a lot of good times through the years. My favorite memory with you was Myrtle Beach. I will help Rachel look over your boys and I will keep an eye on her too and help out with whatever I can. I love you and your family and you will be missed greatly.

“ JOE!!! Where to start?? I have known u since "knee high" as u would say. You were like a big brother to me. Always funny to c u John and Dave together. You maybe gone but theres no way i will ever forget you. You are not only a great father but one of the best people i have ever met. Who ever had the chance to get to know you are very lucky. Keep on shinning bright, i love u and i miss you SOOOOOO much...
