

Joseph Jad Manneh

February 15, 1945 - December 10, 2023

Joseph Jad Manneh passed away Monday, December 10, 2023 peacefully at home after a 3-year battle with cancer. He was born February 15, 1945 to Jad Joseph Manneh and Victoria Shami Manneh in Tel-Aviv, Israel. He spent his childhood and early years growing up in Zarka, Jordan. Joseph studied psychology and wanted to become a priest before deciding to come to the U.S. He came to the United States at age 24, staying in Detroit, MI with cousins then at 26yr decided to move to Virginia where he started his career as a Chef working at the Hayloft Dinner Theater; the Federal Aviation Center and then Goose Creek Country Club. He then moved to Florida where he worked at Showtime Dinner Theater in Fort Lauderdale but then decided to return to Virginia with his family and started his own business, Mama Mia Pizza in Centreville, VA. Later he had a deli and then decided to retire from owning his own restaurant to manage a couple restaurants before retiring completely.

Joseph was a loving husband and father. His daughters were his life and he loved them dearly. He never met a stranger and his smile was contagious. He loved talking to people and finding out their culture and nationality. Anyone who met him immediately took a liking to him. He was a kind, loving, hard working man.

He is survived by his wife, Diana Saba Manneh and two daughters, Victoria Manneh Moore and Maryanne Manneh and his two grandchildren Adam and Danielle Moore. His surviving siblings include Alex; Catherine; and Idah.
