“Joey and i shared our childhood together. We spent nearly everyday coming up with our own adventures or games. We took trips together, ran through the woods, built forts, stayed up late playing video games, biking around the neighborhood, and celebrated our birthdays together the first 12 years of our lives...its hard to pinpoint just one memory since my entire childhood is a memory spent with Joe.

Those bonds we made as kids never went away and i have Joey to thank for the wonderful childhood and fun days that we shared together.

Words cannot describe the pain and the hole that has now been left in our hearts. I am so so sorry for your loss. I know Joe is no longer in pain and is free to let that inner kid run wild with angels in heaven until we are all reunited again. Goodbye Joey, i will love and miss you dearly. Thank you for being my first best friend and my first brother, we had the best times together. Be at Peace now...
