“ I will always remember Joe as a well rounded guy with incredible strength and passion. One summer, that turned into a year or two, before we could drive, and we all had bicycles, Joe hung out with me and 6 or 7 others almost every day using his front yard that others called "Stratford Landing Park" as our rendez vous, playing music, penny poker, shooting shit ... such easy times those were and a such great way to remember him in years to come.

We had the opportunity to visit Stratford Landing Park after Joe's memorial. Hadn't changed much. Still a great place to grow up. Thanks for your comments.

“ Joe was a very close friend in our freshman/sophomore year and my best friend's (Susan Kelley) first boyfriend. He and his buddy Dennis Arkilic spent many days and weekends over at our house with the rest of our large family playing guitar and hanging out. He sold my brother Don (who still lives in Alexandria) a guitar in 1974. He was a sweet and funny guy. I had just gotten on facebook Fort Hunt website and found him, but had not messaged him. Very sad for your family's loss. Susan and I live in the Pacific Northwest and our daughters go to the same college. She is coming down to stay with us for the weekend and we plan to toast Joe with a good microbrew. Am looking in my mess of a basement for a couple of pictures I recall having. Will post them if I find them.

I am so stunned, Uncle Joe. Just got your message and feel heart sick. I last spoke to Jody (Joe) the day Mom died. I had called thanking him for being such a great brother-in-law to Mom when Jody told me I was talking to him and not you. I proceeded in telling him what a great guy his Dad was and Jody told me what a great Dad you were to him. What a fun time we had talking to each other and catching up. What a good hearted young man you and Aunt Pat raised. Please accept Joel's and my deepest sympathies and a huge long distance hug. Know all the Wilson's are loved by the Colsons. Susan
