

Josephine Ann Billick

October 8, 1935 - February 8, 2019

Josephine Ann Billick, 83, of Bristow passed away on Friday, February 8, 2019, in Haymarket after a brief illness.

Josephine was born and raised in Crucible, Pennsylvania where she and her husband Paul (Butch) played together as children and eventually fell in love. While Butch served in the Air Force, Josephine was employed at the Pentagon as a telephone operator. After Butch was discharged, they married in January of 1959 and moved to Jamestown, New York. In 1962, they relocated to Falls Church, Virginia where they raised their sons. They moved to Bristow in 2004 and were members of Holy Trinity Catholic Church. Josephine was a woman of great faith who prayed the rosary daily. She enjoyed keeping in touch with family and friends on Facebook, shopping, reading, bingo and playing the slots at the casino and on her iPad. She cherished time spent with her family – especially her grandchildren -- and her friends, of which she had many.

Survivors include a son, Paul Joseph “Butch” Billick and his wife Michele, grandchildren Joseph Michael Billick and his wife Tamara, Dalton John Billick, Madisyn Nicole Billick, Zachary Robert Billick and a great granddaughter, Alaya Monae Billick. Josephine was preceded in death by her husband Paul (Butch) Billick and her son, Joseph Edward Billick.

The family will receive friends from 6 to 8 p.m. Friday, February 15, at Pierce Funeral Home. A Mass will be said at 10:30 a.m. on Saturday at Holy Trinity Catholic Church, followed by food and fellowship. Inturnment will be at Arlington National Cemetery at a later date.

“ Ah! Kenfig Dr. and Blundell Circle and Blundell Road! We were a pretty tight neighborhood. Too bad we never had a ‘reunion’. Loved our neighbors. Josephine was the best! Always friendly. There if you needed her. Xoxo.

So sorry I have developed a very bad cold so couldn't make the ceremony. I'm sure JosephHome would forgive me but I'm so sorry I could not pay my respects. I have a very bad cold. I'm sure Josephine would forgive me. Love to the family.

“ My precious great nephew Joey and Tamara. I never was able to meet Josephine and I regret that. We would talk on Facebook and respond to her beautiful posts. For awhile grieve your loss but then lean on God for guidance. She will be missed. I love you both so much

“ Sweet Josephine. Many many years of fond childhood memories growing up across the street from her on Kenfig Drive. Lots of laughs (I can hear her laugh now) and tears through the years. Sitting out front in lawn chairs gossiping, drinking coffee, making runs to Brenners bakery, helping me get ready for my first date with my husband! Love you Josephine – you were a true best friend to mom and the best neighbor! Love Cathy & Catherine
