“ Ten years ago tonight my heart was shattered and it broke me to my core. And it still has. I had to push myself really hard into survival mode because of your dad and your sisters. They were the only reason I didn't follow you. Now it's your sisters. You made such a big hole in our lives that can't be filled. There isn't a day I don't think about you but I know you know that when I talk to you and your dad daily. I have really tried to move on but I can't. Momma love will never leave you. But I miss you more than any words can express. All I know is when God calls me home you and dad better be there to take me there. Sending big hugs and kisses to heaven for you both

“ It is hard to believe it has been seven years. It still is raw and painful. I would give anything to have you back. You were so kind and so loved and you had a heart that was so big. I just wish I could have helped you and it tears at my heart every day that I couldn't. It hasn't been the same since you left us. There has been so many good things you have missed. Michael I look at him and see you. So busy and smart with such a caring heart. Jill and Steve said you sent him too them. You would be so proud of Kelsey with Hampton. She such a good mama and he reminds me a lot of you. Such a sweet little daredevil. Then TJ's two little guys Leo and Levi. Such beautiful little boys. Watching Melissa and Annie they are loving being grandma's is such a joy to watch them. I always said being a grandma is the best. Now being a great grandma is great to watch the girls have that special feeling. Could you imagine the nerf gun fights for Christmas you and dad will miss with these four little boys. It breaks my heart because you are missing so much and are missed so much. I love you more than words can express and miss you even more. Sending you big hugs until we are together again.

You were the best son any mom could ever have. You cared about everyone and never had a bad thing to say about anyone. You truly had a heart of gold. It's not right for a parent to live past their children. It is too painful with every year that passes it gets harder. Looking forward to the day I can be with you and dad. “ Mother’s Day is never the same anymore. There is always that heartache and emotional pain I have every year. No one really knows the pain unless they have suffered the unmeasurable loss of one of their children no matter their age. Sometimes I think the older your child is as you have to let go of them is even harder. Knowing you have hold on tight the memories you have because there won’t be any more that we can make. I miss you so much and my heart aches without you. There is not a day I don’t think about you and ask why. Why would someone with such a big heart have to be taken away from us. I love you so much Josh and hope that you and dad have found peace without pain. Sending hugs and kisses to both of you with a heavy heart.

Sad that she is going through the pain and nothing we can do but wait. God I wish you were here. We could really use your wisdom now. I can't stop the sadness and it is a lonely place to be. I don't have dad to help talk to and tell me things will be okay. I feel like it will never be okay. I have really tried to get it together but I am really tired and feel so alone and such a burden. “ Another Mother’s Day went by with a whole left in my heart. Hard day for me since you are gone. Kelsey brought Hampton over and boy that little guy just warms my heart and was so thoughtful of Kelsey and great to spend time with her also . Mariann brought us over dinner and visited with us so it wasn’t such a lonely day Melissa , Trey and Jared went to California to me their sweet little grandson/ Nephew. What a special Mother’s Day for her that will always be the most memorable for her. All in all it was a good day dad was outside and took a little walk down the street and spent a few hours outside enjoying the sunshine. He really had a good day so that made me happy. “ Josh I miss you everyday, all day long. It is 11:00 and 3 years ago that my heart was shattered beyond anything I thought was possible. The pain is as hard now as it was that horrific night and I don't know how to change it. Some days I struggle too get out of bed, and wish I didn't have to. Now my heart hurts so bad and I know how you felt. I never feel whole anymore. A mom should never have to say goodbye to any of her children. I am not strong enough to do it. I just know I have to for your dad and your sisters and the grandchildren. You are so missed by all of us and we will always love you and never ever forget how special of a son, brother and uncle you are to us. Momma loves you always.

“ Josh there is so much you are missing here that you would have loved to be a part of. Baby Michael reminds me so much of you . You would have really enjoyed him as you did with all the others. Then our princess Kelsey Bells is going to be a little momma. Can you believe I am going to be a great Nanny? I always thought I would never see that chapter in my life. I wish dad could understand it but he is really not doing well at all. Found your graduation picture on the dining room table the other day. Her loves to lack to everyone's pictures. He really misses you . Very sad watching him. This man that was so full of knowledge has turned into someone that doesn't know who I am at times. My biggest fear is being alone. Even though sometimes now I feel lonely I am blessed for the times he does remember me and loves me.. It is still so hard to believe that I will never see or here your voice and it is almost three years since you left us. I love you and miss you so much “ Really miss you so much. Happy Birthday up in heaven. How lucky they are to have you with them. I am sorry that I can't move on. A Mom's Love is unconditional and never ending so you will always be in my heart. There is never a day since you left us that I prayed that I can have you back. They say that as time goes by it will get easier but it doesn't. I miss you more everyday. The void will always be there. My heart will hurt until I am with you again. The sadness never goes away. I know that I do have a lot to be thankful for. I am thankful for your sisters. Without them I really don't know where I would be. I am thankful for your dad but the heartbreak of watching him leave me slowly. Thankful for my grandchildren. And I am thankful for the baby that we are getting ready for. So happy for Jill and Steve. The love and happiness he will bring us all is so needed. “ Josh it will be 2 years in 9 days and I still can't move on. I don't know if I ever will. I miss you more than ever and just want to be with you. Life here is getting to be too hard for me. Watching dad struggle daily and sometimes not even know who I am is really a daily struggle for me. I really feel so alone and sad all the time. Just heartbroken.

I want you here near me and your family. I wish you would have known how much your friends and family love you! We all miss you. There is so much I miss about. Most of all I love you so much!! Maybe I didn't say it enough or wasn't always able to see you but the love I have for you is crazy I can't even explain it. There is so much I wish I could have said and done. Why would he put me through this living hell. Is there really a God if so why would he rip your dad and you away from me. Keeping faith gets harder each day. I am tired of being strong. “ Another night and your in my dreams :0) I love you it!! I can't recall all of this one this time but I saw you and you looked at me smiled and walked off I was stuck doing something is all I can remember. I want to have a dream to were we talk to one another. We don't really talk I get kisses I get you staring in to my eyes and me telling you I love you!! I pray every night for you and your family. I also ask and pray that your in my dreams and know how much I'm truly in love with you. I have a letter with you telling me the same thing. Babe I need to hear it again. You were and still are one of the best and sweetest and loveable man I have ever met. I loved your laugh and how you would put your hats on me and then turn them backwards so you can get a kiss. Your hat was to big for me.you were so protective of me. When you found out what Dwayne was doing to me almost on a daily and see marks on me. You made it a point to come over right after work or call and ask if he was there yet and if he wast you would go shower and then come to my home and stay there until about eleven or so. You were always my big teddy bear because if it was cold out you would hug me and zip your coat up to keep me warm. Even your old roommate I can't remember his name would laugh at us and say ok someone is in love. And we would laugh but it was so true. I loved coming over before work and catch you washing cloths. I wanted to call out of work so bad but I couldn't. You were my world my everything and still are. I cried so much when we moved I wanted to stay and we would try to come up ideas so I could stay with my kids. I'll never forget the heart to heart we had and we wanted to have kids. I was so in love with you I wanted more then anything to give you kids. I'm missing you so much. Again with tears. I really wish I knew what dreams really meant. I love babe.

“ I wish I knew what dreams really meant. This is two nights in a row. Last night was the first time you held my hands and all I could say was I love you! You just kept looking at me and I was lost in your eyes then I had to blink. And you had those smiling eyes just staring at me. It felt so real I didn't want to let your hands. I love you much and I miss you more than anything. I wish I could be with you or somehow have you back. I'm in tears just writing this. I'm always in tears. It will never get easier for me. I hate when people tell me that. Josh I love you I can't say it enough. I still have your letters your poems. I loved the way you would write. I would love to say I still have the cd you dedicated and gave me but Dwayne took it and snapped because I told him I borrowed it off a friend from work Because I love the songs on it and he didn't care and cracked it. I never told you because I was so scared of what you would have done and how you would have felt. I do remember the songs on that were on that cd :). I love you to the Moon and beyond!! “Parents of child loss learn how to become the great deceivers early on. They have to put on the mask because people don't understand -- they can't understand -- the pain that a parent wrestles with day and night when a child is gone. There's never an hour that goes by without thinking of their child. There are a million tears cried inside of the heart every day. There are moments of screaming and begging and pleading. But, others don't see this. Instead, parents become the greatest deceivers of all time. If others knew the torment that went on inside of a parent's heart and mind, they would stand back and wonder how there is any breath left inside of that broken, wounded body. There is simply no greater pain than that of losing a child. There is absolutely nothing to compare.

I wish God had taken me instead of you. My life is like a puzzle and you are my missing piece. I will never be whole again. This has been such a hard month. Your birthday, thanksgiving and then it will be Christmas. I wish I could sleep through it all. The holidays are not the same I miss you so much. Why did you leave us why would you let her take you away from us. I will always ask why when all of us are here in so much pain in our hearts. You were the best son a parent could ask for. Great brother and uncle. We all just lost so much when you thought life was too hard to keep living. Now our lives are unbelievably sad. I love you and miss you so bad. Mom*

I close my eyes to see your face, suddenly I feel a warm embrace.
With a smile so wide
it brings tears to my eyes.
I try so hard not to cry
all of my pain I cannot hide.
You always knew just what to say to anyone having a bad day.
I don't know if I will ever understand but it must be part of God's plan.
As I look up towards the blue sky
I imagine you spreading your wings to fly.
Be sure to give your Mom a sign
so she knows you are in Heaven, and everything is fine.
As the tears roll down my face
I know you are in a better place..

“ There are no words for how bad my heart hurts. I miss you so much. I can remember about a month before you left a friend that is one of our contractors. John the owner of Commonwealth Construction. His son shot himself. I could remember Teri & I talking about what do you say to someone going through so much heartache, and the unbelievable pain. Now I know that horrible heartache & pain that never goes away. During the day I put a mask on and try too keep myself together and at night I cry myself to sleep. In the morning I don't even want to get out of bed. Then it starts all over day after day night after night. The only good thing in my life is seeing the girls when they come to visit and the grand kids when they come by. Mama loves you so much and always will.

We were talking about you today and remembers doing so much with you and you playing ball with him and always making us laugh. We miss you so much. I know you would have called him tomorrow before his graduation just to wish him luck and tell him how happy you are he made it. As we sit and talk about you it brings me to tears just how much he remembers you and what you two would do and the jokes you would play in him. You were such a big part of my life and still are. Who ever said it gets easier with time is so wrong it still feels like I just lost you. God so much I wanted to tell you so many Things left unsaid. The only thing I can hold on to is that you knew with all your heart I love you and I knew you loved me. I remember you telling me you would just pick up and move out here. There are so many things that not everyone knows about us. I pray every night asking God for you to here me. I love you!! And always have you are always on my mind and in my heart. “Missing you today just as I did 9 months and 3 days ago when my world went crumbling right before me when I found out you were gone. You are so very missed Josh. No words could explain how broke my heart became the horrible day. Everyday I try to get up and live my life but it's so hard knowing your not here enjoying it with us. You were the best son, brother and uncle anyone could ask for. I try to keep going knowing that's what you would want us to do but it's hard some days. I miss the jokes you would send me via text and your famous quote "you mad? You need a hug or a role model" what I wouldn't give to hear you say that to me once again. I hope your resting in paradise and are at peace big brother! Love you!!

“ Your in my breams again. I love seeing you and this time I was able to hold you tight. It hurt I can't remember all of my breams but this time I remember holding you so tight and you saying I love you and I'll never leave your side. I woke up right after that and again I was in tears and couldn't stop crying I still have tears in my eyes. I always wonder is it me want to dream all of this is it that your really there. I pray for you everyday all day and think of you everyday all day and yes I may be silly but i talk to you and I pray and hope

You can hear me. No one knew how close we truly were. I Love you babe and miss you so much as much as we would talk and laugh and play around and as much as you would tell me you loved me why couldn't come to me and tell me what was going on. I guess like you would always tell your a private person and didn't like anyone knowing what was going on in your personal life.

I keep listening to all the song you have ever sent me that you said made you think of me. I still have the cd's you made for me I can't listen to the cd's and some of the song yet I'm not ready i listen to some of them. God I can't say it enough I miss you and love you so much it hurts so bad it still feels as if you just left I know it has been nine months but in my heart it doesn't feel that way it feels like I just received that call.

I Love You Josh with all I have in me and you are so missed.....

I know you are still with us but it's just not the same! You were just one of a kind and I'm so lucky to have had you as my brother! “ Josh it has been six month's since you left and I miss you so much. Troy stopped by yesterday to help shovel us out from our big blizzard. We talked about you and how you always had good people came to you as you were so good to everyone and it showed. I try to figure what and when did things got so wrong that you could not ask us to help you as you always helped us. It is really hard not having you in our life's and my heart is broken. Some days I try to be strong but I am not. I know you would not me to be sad but that is.all I know. It is really hard to a mom to say goodbye to any of their children. I think about you daily and wonder way I did not know what you were going to do and why I didn't know. I ask myself daily what kind of Mom am I not to have known you were in that much pain and was I part of the reason why. I hope you knew how much I love you and will always will. Love Mom

We celebrated your birthday today without you here on earth but I know you were watching us from heaven. 40 years ago was one of my happiest days of my life. Holding you the first time brought me so much joy. Watched you grow up into the most loving and caring young man that made me so proud to be your Mom. You have never ever let us down. We were the lucky ones to have you for the 39 years that we had but it was never enough time I just wanted more I just needed more. I didn't want you to leave me and wish I could get you back and wrap my arms around you and hold on tight. I would never let you go. The night you left it put such a void in my heart and I can never be the same. You will always be your dad's and my special angel that we will never forget and will love you until we meet again. We miss you so much and it is hard to try to put on my happy face when I grieve you daily and hourly. A part of my heart went with you when you left us. I would give anything just to have you back.I really try to be strong for everyone but some days I break down and feel just awful for the girls because they need me to be there for them. I need to say good night and I love you.

“ It's been a month and there is not a day or minute I don't think of you!! I miss you so much. When you left us a part of my heart went with you. All I do is sit and wonder if there was anything I could have done. My heart breaks that you are no longer with us. I miss and love you big brother!! ❤️XOXOXO

“ Joshua it has been a month since you left us and the heartache and the pain of missing you has just been harder for me to handle. I love you and miss you so much. My heart is broken beyond repair. It is a challenge to keep going and if it weren't for your dad and sisters I don't think I could. I know you would tell me I could do it but there are days I don't want to get out of bed and make myself do it and keep push on. I love you and miss you so much. You are my special angel. love you so Mom.

“ This is from DJ and Jasmine Collins. Dwayne's kids. DJ remembers Josh always coming over the house to hang out and remembers how he would throw the football around. Jazz remembers how he would always call her little bean and how he would let her just hang on him and he would hold his arm up for her so she can swing.. My and I miss Josh so much it's so hard to put into words. I still keep looking at my phone waiting for a text Ora phone call.. Josh may you always rest in peace and know that you are loved by so many and you will be sorely missed.. I love you!! And I know you never like to say good by so I'll just say until we meet again.. 💜💜💜

“ Joshua Michael Banta "JMB" As I known him from MMORPG Final Fantasy XI was indeed a great person. I've known JMB for years in the game and amongst all the people I socialize within that game... Josh left an ever lasting impression for me and my father... We had a real bond even through virtually and that alone shows what kind of person JMB truly was... a dear friend...a loving uncle...and a beloved son. My father and I will surely miss him... and our hearts go out the Banta families. Heaven truly has gained an amazing angel...

“ Not sure where my memories that I wrote 7/31/2015 went but they are no longer on here and that breaks my heart. Fred and I where so lucky to be Joshua's parents. We only had one son and three beautiful daughter's. We could not have been more blessed to have him in our lives for the short 39 years of his life. He was always a loving and giving soul that would give you the shirt off his back, and never ask for anything in return. If you were lucky to be in his circle of family and friends you were the chosen ones. Life without him will leave a big void in so many ways. His big smile his funny jokes or just things he would do to make you laugh, and his helping hand His was such a loving son, brother and uncle. He cherished us as much as we cherished him. He called me everyday to see how we were doing if we needed anything or just to see what we were doing. I would give everything I have to get that call now. Never take anything for granted as you never know when it will be gone. Heaven just gained an awesome angel and I know he is watching over us all. We will never forget you and will always be in our hearts. Mama misses you so much. I love you and you will always be my baby boy. <3

I can't even imagine having to live the rest of my life without you in it, even though I have my very own gurdian angel I would much rather have you here with me! You were the one person that anyone could call if they needed help and before they could finish their sentence you were already in your car heading their way! I don't know if you knew the effect you had on others, but boy the memories I've heard you have touched so many hearts and lives! I don't even have enough space to write how much you have helped me and my family, but I can say you never thought twice about it either! If one man could change the world that would definitely be by YOU!!! I hope you are at peace and having a good time up in Heaven with all of lost loved ones! God definitely gained a GREAT angel! You will always be in my heart and I will always love you to the moon and beyond! This is not good bye it's til we meet again big bro! Love you! Xoxoxo*
