“ Josh was a very engaging and friendly young man. Each time we met he would greet me with a " Hi Mr. Mitchell, How are you today". Then we would move into long discussions about work, current events or politics. He was always very respectful and courteous to me even though I was much older and had differing views in some cases. His smile was infectious and each time we met I walked away smiling and feeling a little happier.

Josh, you will be missed.

“ Josh was a very friendly and helpful young man. We enjoyed his bubbly personality and talking about whatever was currently going on in the news. He was also an avid reader and exchanged books with Anne frequently. He was also an animal lover and would take care our cat when we were away and visit him when we were home. He was always willing to help with whatever we needed, from shoveling the driveway to changing a light fixture. Our family will miss him greatly and our deepest sympathies go out to his family and loved ones.

Love,

The Harrington Family, Anne, George, Rebecca, and George
