“ Donna,Michelle and Rachael, I will always keep you in my thoughts and Prayers. No words can express my feelings for The Loss Of Joshua. I can only say I will cherish the Baby Pictures that Donna always sent me when I lived in Michigan, and when I would come to Va. to visit I would always go to visit Donna. I can still see Joshua being bashful when I would walk in and Uncle Earl saying Come here Josh and sit with Grand dad,she won't hurt you.After a while he would get down and go on his way. I remember telling Donna, he should have been a girl, he is too Pretty to be a boy. So now I will say he was such a Pretty baby, and now he is a Beautiful Angel. I know his Grand Dad and Grand Maw Pat are fighting over who is going to hold him in Heaven right now. I know Josh is Happy to be back in their arms. Much love goes to his Mom,Nan Nan and Aunt Rachael.

“ Michelle and family,
It is with great sorrow and pain, as well as a very heavy heart that I write this quick note. No words can take away or comfort the grief you must feel right now. Please know that no matter if we saw each other once a year or once a month I have always considered you a friend. I am here for you to offer support on any level that you may need support on. Yesterday at the benefit when Brian was looking at his homecoming pictures he said "Wow Shawn do you see that glow on his face, he was an angel and that is why he was called home, he served his duties on this earth and now he must move on" Pretty powerful words from an often quiet man, really touched my heart. You are one of the strongest women I know, and I know you will keep your head held high.

*Deepest Sympathy,
Shawn Robinson*
