“ I had no idea that Joyce had passed away. She was one of the only people I worked with at Virginia Commerce Bank that cared for every person that worked there. We would meet up for lunch and laugh about all kinds of funny things and she always gave me so much hope for the future with the advice she would share with me. I will miss her dearly.

“ Dear Family of Joyce Pascarell:
It was my great privilege to have Joyce as a friend for the past two years. We met when I joined the Operations Dept. at Virginia Commerce Bank, and immediately hit it off. We had so much fun sitting around her cube on a Friday evening, shooting the breeze. She proved herself to be a true friend when I was let go from the Bank. She always cheered me up and gave me unwavering support and friendship. We made sure we had lunch a couple of times a month, and how I am going to miss those times with her; sharing a new restaurant and laughing ourselves silly. Joyce was good, and kind, and funny, and sweet; and I will mourn her loss for the rest of my life. God bless you all.

“ Joyce was a special neighbor for many, many years. She was extremely thoughtful, baking cakes for us at numerous times. We had her celebrate with us on our 50th anniversary and my wife's 70th birthday. We will miss her greatly. We are sorry to have missed the funeral services. We got caught up in some family things and found out too late about the services. We send our condolences to the family. Bill and Bernice Severe

“A Farewell to my Sister Joyce”

I would like to thank you for being such a great sister. Thank you for being such a loving and caring Aunt to my children and grandchildren. No one could have loved them more than you did. We did have some good looking children. You will never know how much you will be missed. I know you didn't want to leave this world yet because you hadn't spoiled little Daniel as much as you wanted to. We have to let you go because God called you home. There is no more pain for you. Thank God, I'm grateful for that.

I really admired the way you held it together when you lost your son Johnny. You were so brave. I would have been a wreck.

We've had a good life and families who adore and love us. We have had our spats but nothing earth shattering. Sorry I gave you your first haircut. I got the worst end of that. Just like the time I put your head through a wall. I couldn't sit for a week. You had the last laugh.

I'm going to miss all your trips up here to Delaware. We had fun. I will also miss our phone calls catching up on our kids and you always wanted to know what bug head Al was up to. You always got a kick out of Al's "never a dull moment" events.

We'll love and miss you forever! Give Nana, Paw Paw, Dee and Roger our love. Until we meet again.

Love,

Shirley
