“ To Joyce’s family, Joyce was a very special friend that I talked with at Parkside for many years. She was a wonderful teacher and helped me as a young teacher. She was always there when I needed her for anything. And I was honored to teach two of her grandsons in first grade. Joyce loved her family so much and I used to ask her after my mom passed away if she would adopt me! She was totally committed to her children and grandchildren. I know she will be missed by all of you. Do you know if your Medicare, sending hugs and prayers For all of you from Joyce’s hometown Pittsburgh Pennsylvania where I now live! God bless all of you, Maureen Matty
