

Joyce Ann Wolfe

August 15, 1936 - September 23, 2021

Joyce Ann Wolfe, 85, passed away peacefully on September 23 after a long illness. She was surrounded by members of her family who now take comfort in knowing that she has been reunited in heaven with her beloved husband of 62 years, John, who passed away in 2016.

Joyce is survived by daughter Desiree and her husband George, parents of her grandchildren Ashley and husband Daniel, Shannon and husband Michael, and Megan and husband Kyle; and her son Mark, parent of Elizabeth. Elizabeth is the mother of her two great-grandchildren Sadie and Ethan. In addition, Joyce is survived by her sister Sharon Hansen of Atlanta, and brother Jim and sister-in-law Pat Sinsel of Baltimore. She was also loved and will be missed by many nieces, nephews and cousins. Joyce grew up in Preston County West Virginia, and was loved and will be mourned by her many friends and relatives who still remain in Preston County and those who have moved away yet still remained in her heart.

Joyce was a caring and loving wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother and friend. She retired from IBM after 23 years of service and then enjoyed decades of retirement traveling, refinishing furniture and cherishing time spent with family members. She was a long-time member of Saint Thomas United Methodist Church and a dedicated member of the Dorcas Circle. Throughout her illness, she was continually uplifted with prayers, friendship and love by the members of the Saint Thomas church family.

A memorial service will be held at Pierce Funeral Home, 9609 Center Street in Manassas, on Saturday, October 23, at 2 p.m. The service will also be live streamed at www.piercefh.com. A private burial will take place at Quantico National Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, the family requests that memorial donations be made to the Missions Team at St. Thomas United Methodist Church, 8899 Sudley Road, Manassas, VA, 20110.

“ Joyce held the distinction of being the longest occupant of a house on Stonewall Rd. I always enjoyed our conversations while I would be walking my dog. She was always enthusiastic and shared a positive approach to life's problems. I never heard her complain about her ailments. The whole block has fond memories of the garage sales that she and John put on after they refinished some furniture. We still have more than one piece of their handiwork in our house. She will be missed as is John.

“ To the Wolfe Family: My wife Vera and I extend our sympathy on your loss. I had the pleasure of working with John and Joyce for many years at IBM, and also being a neighbor in the Point of Woods development. I have notified everyone on my IBM and Lockheed master email list. You all are in our thoughts and prayers.
