“ So sorry to hear about Judy and Kenny . Prayers to continue to comfort the family. I played with her on the Armel Farm years ago. Carefree days also with Donnie , Bobby, and Kenny. As I remember he was the youngest of the bunch of us. We were there mostly in the summer months. Love and prayers Sybil Castleman Beasley.,

“ Judy was totally a family first wife and mother. You could tell the world revolved around Ronnie her kids and grandkids. As Judy's brother I loved my sister very much and we didn't speak very often but I always tried to get a laugh out of her. I will miss Judy a great deal. My heart goes out to Ronnie, Eric and Cherie and of course those grand kids.

“ I loved having you as a neighbor for many, many years as I was growing up alongside Cherie and Eric, You used to referee Cherie and I fighting over Barbie dolls a lot -- I do remember that! I remember you always had the most spectacular Christmas trees too! In my adult years, I'm glad that we still connected through Facebook. You always had a kind word to say. You will be missed terribly.
