

June Pair Kilpatrick

May 21, 1932 - November 29, 2013

June Pair Kilpatrick, “Granny June Bug”, on November 29, 2013, in Haymarket, Virginia, dear wife of 23 years to Frederick “Fritz” Kilpatrick, died peacefully by his side. Mother of Denise Elizabeth Carter and only born son not named. Survived by daughter Rebecca Marie Blair, her husband Gregory Blair; stepsons Mark and Chris, and their wives Patricia and Sharon Kilpatrick; and her grandchildren Stephanie, Amber, Daniel, and William Kilpatrick. June was a lifelong Virginian who earned a bachelor’s degree in English from the University of Richmond’s Westhampton College in 1953. She was a teacher for many years, but turned to writing as a career as she raised her daughters. After many years as a writer and editor for the nonprofits in Richmond and Northern Virginia, she became a consultant writer for Business Council in Washington, DC. Growing up in the Great Depression as an only child inspired the writing of her nonfiction novel “Wasp in the Kitchen, Butter in the Well” published in 2012. She was an active member of the Manassas Baptist Church, and the Prince William Chapter of the Virginia Writers Club, Write by the Rails. A long time member of various bridge groups within her community and the Sunday “Lunch Bunch,” June was loved by many and will be dearly missed. There will be a Memorial Service on December 14, 2013, at the Manassas Baptist Church, 8800 Sudley Road, Manassas, Virginia at 3:30 pm. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Joslin Diabetes Foundation via www.joslin.org.
