“ I grew up next door to June & Jim Phelan. I still remember visiting with her when I was just a young girl. She also gave my sister piano lessons & let us pick crabapples off her tree. In later years, June & my mother Betty became the neighborhood guardians of some stray cats. June enjoyed when I brought my young daughters for a visit, letting them pick leaves & flowers. She will be missed. God bless her & her family.

“ My deepest sympathy to the family of Mrs. Phelan. My family became neighbors of Jim and June when we moved into 307 South Tulpehocken Road in June of 1956. My parents died in 2003 and their house was sold the same year. I will always remember June. She gave me piano lessons when I was in second grade. She and my parents looked out for each other as they all grew older. Looking out for the neighborhood cats was also something they had in common. She was a wonderful woman. God bless her for her faith in Christ and service to the church. May His light and peace surround her, and His strength and comfort sustain you as you grieve June's passing.
