

Justin David Humphreys

August 8, 2002 - May 22, 2026

With heavy hearts, we announce the passing of Justin David Humphreys, beloved husband, son, brother, friend, and one-of-a-kind spirit, who left this world far too soon at just 23 years old, after losing his battle to cancer.

To know Justin was to know energy, laughter, and freedom. He lived life wide open — full throttle and without hesitation. A passionate motorcycle influencer, Justin built more than just a following; he built a community. Through every ride, video, and late-night adventure, he inspired thousands to chase what they loved fearlessly and authentically.

But beyond the bikes and social media (@twowheelj), Justin was the heartbeat of every room he entered. He had a magnetic personality that drew people in instantly. Whether it was a backyard bonfire, a crowded party, or a quiet night with close friends, he had a way of making everyone feel included, seen, and alive. His laugh was contagious, his stories unforgettable, and his loyalty unmatched.

Friends remember him as the person who never let anyone sit alone, who always showed up when it mattered, and who somehow turned ordinary moments into lifelong memories. He lived with intensity, passion, and a rare kind of joy that cannot be taught.

Though his time here was short, the impact Justin made will last forever in the hearts of those who loved him. His family finds comfort in knowing he lived exactly as himself — unapologetically bold, deeply loved, and surrounded by people who adored him.

He is survived by his wife Madison Moore-Humphreys, parents Diana Moxley & William Humphreys, siblings Shana & Blake Humphreys, Grandparents Robert & Jeri Bynaker and Sharon Sillex, Uncle Gene Moxley (cousin Natalie), Aunt Melissa "Meme" Boorman (cousins Jason, Kayleigh, Chloe), countless friends who became family, and a community of riders and supporters who will continue carrying his spirit down every open road. Waiting for him at the Door to Heaven was his Uncle David Sillex.

Ride free, Justin. You will forever be missed, forever be loved, and forever lead the pack.

A reception to follow burial for friends and family at Rockwood, 7505 Iron Bar Lane, Gainesville, VA 20155. In honor of Justin, friends and attendees are encouraged to come, share stories loudly, and remember the incredible light he brought into this world.
