

Kailash Kharbanda

October 28, 1944 - April 9, 2021

Kailash Kharbanda, age 76, beloved wife, mother and grandmother, passed away on Friday, April 9, 2021 after her months-long battle with cancer. As many people who knew her have said, she was a “giver.” She gave of herself throughout her life. As a young girl, she helped raise her siblings. As a wife, she supported her husband without hesitation or a thought for herself. As a mother, she sacrificed her own needs so her children could have a better future. As a grandmother, she loved unconditionally and doted on her grandchildren when they visited. As friends and family came by, she gave of herself the best way she knew how: with her amazing cooking. She truly enjoyed spending time with her family—cooking, talking and playing games (like Gin Rummy, Farkle, UNO, and Ludo). Her initial hesitancy to play was quickly replaced by the joy of beating everyone, with a grin on her face. We will miss those grins tremendously.

Kailash is survived by her husband of almost 60 years, Raj; four children, Gaitry and husband Rajiv, Dolly and husband Sandeep, Rakesh, and Kunal and wife Heidi; and her grandchildren, Avin and Ankita, Sanjeet and Avijeet, and Liam, Ashley, and Esha.

The viewing is on Monday, April 12, 2021 from 10-11 AM, followed by the funeral service and cremation at Pierce Funeral Home and Cremation Services, 9609 Center Street, Manassas, VA.

In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be given to a cancer charity of your choice.
