“ May her memory be a blessing to all who knew and loved Sue. We worked together under some very stressful conditions. Sue always kept her sweet disposition and positive outlook. Donna Duggan-Young

“ I never knew her like the rest of my family did. I knew of her as the woman who my HALF blooded siblings father was with. Their stepmother. I met her maybe 4 times. Whenever I was allowed to go to a barBq with brian..Maybe? She was nice to me whenever I did see her. I don't know enough about her to sit here and type emotional things. Share memories because I don't really have any. What I can say is from what I see and hear she was loved alot. Was more of a mother to my siblings than our actual mom. I heard about sue while growing up. Always wished I had been involved in all the fun and good times. She attended my mother's funeral when I'm sure it was awkward for her...she still came so..I respected that. To attend her husband's ex wife's funeral. I suppose that shows what kind of woman she was. Not many woman would of done that. In short...I'm sorry for my siblings loss and to lee, my sympathies.

“ Sue... I can't believe you are gone. You had a heart of gold and you were always so supportive and encouraging of those around you. Your smile could warm a room and you were held so dearly in so many people's hearts. You were the glue that kept the family together, especially during the holiday's and I think that was obvious to just about everyone.

Even though we weren't as close as we could have been, you were an amazing Aunt to me. You were there when I was born and you were always present in my life in one way or anything and I cherish every memory I have of you. One thing we bonded on was our love for Stevie Nicks and I will always think of you and remember you when I play her music.

You made such an impression on me growing up and your love for Victorian decor. You had such a beautiful eye for decor and such a talent at being able to transport any room back into an era of beauty, class and elegance. Because of you, I developed a love and fascination for anything and everything Victorian.

I know that you were loved by many and your name and your memory will always live in the hearts of everyone who knew you. May you find your peace in this transition and that the ancestors, especially your mom, welcome you with love, light and open arms. May their love for you wash over you and elevate your spirit and that you always be cloaked in the light of God.

May you continue to fly with the angels, just as you did when you were alive.

My deepest condolences to Lee, Shawn and the rest of the family. May Sue's spirit always be with you and watch over you. May she always live on in memory, laughter and your smiles.
