“ We have lost a special neighbor and friend. I watched Karen grow up through the years, and even though she had problems, she always had a nice smile. I want to send condolences to her parents, sister, daughters and her long time friend, and will keep each in my prayers.

“ I have known Karen for many years. She was always one of the most attractive people, on the inside and out, that you would want to know. I had many good times with Karen. I will miss her deeply. I extend my sympathies to Mr. & Mrs. Schaeffer, Sandy, the girls and Sean. God bless you all.

“ Dear Shaeffer Family, I was so sorry to hear about Karen. She was a very sensitive person. I went to high school with her. She felt a lot of things more deeply than we can ever know. Although she had many troubles over the years, she was a loving person first and foremost! We can all call ourselves blessed if we can have that be our own legacy.
