“ I wish I had gotten to know Katelynn more than I did. I knew her only through class and through the few times I went to EDGE. She was so beautiful inside and out. Such a wonderful person! A beautiful smile and an even more beautiful voice. She was truly blessed in so many ways. She lived her life for God, and there is NO DOUBT she's with Him looking down on us all now. I'm praying for your family.

“ Lois, Bob, Ashleigh, Noah, and family,

As you gather to together to honor Katelynn's life, may God lift you up, that you may truly celebrate her life, and hold dear all the memories.

Our most special memories are the many 4th of July celebrations at Lake Anna with all the fireworks, and the children singing to entertain the family and friends. Katelynn wants that laughter and fun to continue, as she too is with us each day in spirit. Katelynn is enjoying a beautiful place of eternal life, and will be waiting for us there, that we might join her in singing praises to God.

Love and prayers, C. M. and Dale

“ I was fortunate enough to have met Kate at the beginning of this summer on a short trip back home. The few short weeks I got to spend with Kate and Ashleigh were some of the best of my life, and I will never forget them or "Le Dream Team." I will remember and miss my friend for the extraordinary person she was, who always was always smiling. Kate and the rest of the Moore family are in my thoughts and prayers.
