“ It was so good to see all of you last night, even under these circumstances. Your mother was a special lady who loved Joe and treated him like a grandson - and he called her Grandma. She wouldn't let me pay her much when she babysat him, and then spent part of the money I paid her to buy him gifts for his birthday, Christmas, and other special occasions. She and your dad also took him to baseball practice and football practice if I couldn't get there in time - and then sometimes went to his games as well. I will never forget the time she told me they'd played "Dukes of Hazard" that day. Joe with his blonde hair was Bo, a little dark-haired boy named Tommy was Luke, Tina was Daisy, and she was "Uncle Jesse." What a lady!

“ My heartfelt sympathies in the loss of your dear loved one. How comforting in knowing Almighty God has not only the power but also the desire to resurrect our loved ones. Jesus himself said: "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." John 5:28,29
