

Kathryn McGee Austin

June 26, 1937 - January 8, 2023

Kathryn Anne McGee Austin, of Haymarket, VA, passed away peacefully on January 8, 2023. Kathryn was born in New Albany, PA in 1937 and had a lifelong love of her family dairy farm and the beauty of farm life.

Kathryn was married to Francis Austin in 1965. They shared 57 years of marriage and raised three loving children, Fred, Kathy and Gary. She was a devoted homemaker who kept a wonderful home full of faith and unconditional love. She was a member of St Katherine Drexel Catholic Mission congregation for 45 years.

Kathryn always kept a witty sense of humor and feisty resolve even as she faced many difficult challenges in life. She is predeceased by her daughter Kathy, son Fred and grandson Austin Manning. She is survived by her husband, Francis, and son, Gary, and granddaughters, Ashley Clemons and Alanah Austin, who love her and miss her very much.

Final services for Kathryn will be announced at a later date.
