

Kaushalya Devi Lahar

August 12, 1938 - April 9, 2026

Kaushalya D. Lahar, a beacon of love and strength, passed away suddenly on April 9, 2026, at INOVA Fairfax Hospital, Falls Church, Virginia, at the age of 87. Born on August 12, 1938, in Rupowal, Punjab, India. Kaushalya's life was a remarkable journey.

Kaushalya's early years in Punjab and then later Delhi were filled with the rich traditions and the vibrant culture of her homeland, which she carried with her throughout her life. Her marriage to the Late Krishan Chander Lahar was a partnership that lasted 52 years. Together, they created a loving home and a legacy of warmth.

Her role as a mother to Vijay (Sukhi), Raman (Sharda), Deepak (Permila) and Ranjana (Shiv) was where Kaushalya truly shone. She instilled in them the values of compassion, integrity, and resilience. Her nurturing spirit and unwavering support were the cornerstones upon which her children built their own families. Her absolutely favorite role in life was being the best grandmother to her beloved grandchildren, Ravi, Nitu, Ishaan, Ajay, Aman, Yash and Anjali.

Kaushalya's life was a testament to the power of love and the importance of family. She was a beloved wife, a cherished mother, grandmother, aunt and a friend to all who knew her. Her laughter, wisdom, and kindness were gifts that enriched the lives of those around her.

As we bid farewell to our beloved mother and grandmother, we celebrate her extraordinary life. Though she will be deeply missed, her spirit will continue to inspire and guide us. Her memory will forever be etched in our hearts, a treasured reminder of the love she shared and the life she lived so beautifully.

“ I remember AuntyJi when she first came to take care of Ravi as a newborn baby. She would massage butter into his skin to keep it soft and then bathe him. So much love and care I had never seen. I also remember her loving and care of Neetu. She would watch and protect her granddaughter to make sure that no harm ever came to her. Her grandmotherly love, affection, care and love was immeasurable!
