“ I am so sorry to hear that you passed away. Kenny I have known you ever since I was a little girl. My Nana and Pawpaw (Lucille and Elmer Armstrong) lived in the same trailer park. The last time I seen little Kenny, he was a young boy. He looked just like you. I was shocked to hear that you had brain surgery. And then just days later passed away. God has something else for you right now. I pass your house every time I come up to see Dad. It isn't going to be the same without you. Dad was upset too that you are gone. Rest In Peace Kenny. Till we see you again. Forever in our hearts. God bless you and your family, lil Kenny and all the family. Fondly your long time friend Christy Armstrong Squier
