“ It was a privilege to know Ken over the past three years. I trusted him with my life on many occasions and he rewarded that trust with many safe flights.

My thoughts and prayers will continue for Ken's family.

Ken will truly be missed. I look forward to joining him in heaven one day when we all see our Savior and all things are made new.

“ I was fortunate enough to know Ken through our work together at Aurora. He was and will remain for me one of the most memorable relationships created during that time. Ken was so warm and direct and always there when you needed him. When Ken took care of something, whether work or personal, it was taken care of. His commitment to everything he did was clear; his thinking was creative and his motivation was complete. He flew us around regularly and we never for a moment had any doubts about trusting him with our very lives. Because we knew exactly who he was. Trustworthy, and very, very capable.

Ken, I wish we had more time for our lives to cross paths again, as we discussed only a few weeks ago, but it looks like that will have to wait for a while. I pray for Mimi and the children, that they find the strength to deal with this incredible loss, and that when they reflect on Ken and their life together, they come to realize what a blessing he's been and how much they can learn from his life. Even as we may think it was short, in the eyes of our Creator it was complete, and the time had come. He will continue to watch you and protect you from there.

With love,
-- Amit

“ Ken will be dearly missed. I had the pleasure of working with him for two wonderful years. I have never worked for such a dedicated and caring individual. I am truly fortunate that Ken and I became friends outside of work. It is with deepest sorrows that I say good bye to such a dear friend.

“ I am very saddened to hear the sudden passing of Ken. I used to work with Ken and share the same passion for flying and aviation. It was always pleasure just to be around Ken. The first thing we'd say when we saw each other for the day would be "Bon giorno", and then we would continue on joking in Italian and German for a minute or two before returning to the grind of the mill. If he wasn't in the air, he was that extra little breath of fresh air that one needs once in a while. I will miss him a lot. My thoughts are with the family and friends.

Bon giorno Ken
