“ My heart aches without you in my life. I'm sorry that we didn't talk more often. I only wish you could have turned to me and asked for help... or that someone close to you could have alerted us to your desperation.

I understand how it feels to be depressed and feel trapped - I've been there. But there is always help. I would have given you everything I had to keep you alive.

I love you and will grieve for you the rest of my life. I hope you are finally at peace.

*Your loving sister,
Dianne*
