“ What a great guy Kevin was! It takes great courage to face the diagnosis and prognosis of his disease not to mention live with the progressive weakness without losing his sense of humor. I remember him always with his laugh accompanying some story he'd share when coming into the clinic. I am both humbled and in awe of his loving caregivers/family knowing you walked through this with him.

“ I will always remember the fun times of our childhood, playing in our home in Yorkshire eating Mom's delicious meals, and enjoying the holidays as a family. Even then, you freely shared your smile and the joy that you felt about life with everyone that you met. I know that your wonderful personality will be appreciated in Heaven. My love goes to Sheila and Chelsea. May they be comforted.
Love,
Jerry
