“ Jan, Erin, Shaun, Chris, and Brittany - your husband and dad Kevin is simply the epitome of all that's right in the world. He's always stepped up to the plate when stepping up to the plate needs to be done. Loyal friend, responsible husband to Jan, loving dad to you kids. His spirit has now been freed of a body that sadly failed him, but he's not gone...not by any stretch. He'll be with you..always...each and every day from this point on. He'll love you and watch over you, and he'll want you to love him and watch over his spirit as well.

With heartfelt gratitude, I'm honored to know Kevin. Truly one of the best friends a person could want. I'll miss his physical being, but I'll carry his memory and spirit forward.

I love ya, man. Take care.

“ Jan and family,

Sending our condolences and hoping that wonderful memories of Kevin will comfort you and play on. We will always remember Kevin for his fairness, spirit, and soccer skills as a coach for the Mid-County Express while Shaun and our son David were teammates.

“ In the early 1970's I was a scared, awkward kid at soccer camp. Kevin was one of the "big kids", and he always went out of his way to let me know I had a friend. It was a long time ago, and I remember it well. I am deeply saddened for Kevin's family, and want you to know that he was a good person even when he was a high school kid. My prayers are with you.
