"Yea, Sis," with his teasing half-smile. Loved counting him right in there as my brother. I count the nearly lifelong friendship soooo precious. I thank God for his wonderful undaunted spirit. Devi, my heart goes out to you, you know, and Nadia and Alexander, I would ask for the "big little ones" - till I would just ask for the big ones when we checked in - you brought him great joy. Chris, Tosha, Sandy and all of your families. Covering you in prayer as I weep with you. As I try to digest this ...

I have such fond memories for my big cousin Kevin. When I was around 16 he took my mom, Aunt Norma, Devi and Devi's cousin on an island tour of Jamaica. It is one of my fondest memories of visiting Jamaica. I remember our stop in Boston to get some jerk, visiting the Falls and driving through the country with bambam on repeat. When I was in my 20's Alicia and I drove to see Kevin and Chris and visit his nightclub Legends. For one night we were servers and saw Kevin in action being a boss with his cool demeanor that was full of confidence and grace. During this visit Kevin drove us to brunch and cousin Nadia was a child said Daddy Drive fast. Let's just say Alicia sat in the backseat on the way there, but on the way back sat in the front seat. Dear Kevin, You are greatly missed. I remember the first Christmas I spent with you, Christopher, Devi, Nadia, Alex, Lark and Ciona. We were at the dinner table and Christopher asked me "How are you related to the Schwapp's family?" You replied "She is Devi's family". At that moment you became my family too. Rest in Peace Dear Kevin. Joy

I wanted more time with you big Cuz, but I am happy and grateful for the time we did have. Talking with you, hearing the things we have in common, you felt like home to me. I will always remember your laugh, your dangerous sense of humor, and some of the best hugs I've ever had. Whenever I giggle at an "inappropriate" instance, I know you'll be laughing with me, and I'll look for you. I love you Kevin!

“ Kevin was a colleague of mine at the Alexandria Buffalo Wild Wings. I had been a manager for a couple of years, but was new to that specific store. Kevin and I immediately hit it off. Our personalities were so alike and we bonded almost instantly. He was the first person at work that I told I was pregnant. He always looked out for me and held me to a high standard which kept me working hard. We worked well together. He was the smartest and funniest person I ever had the honor of working with. I am deeply saddened to hear of his passing, he was truly something special. Sending all of the light and love to Kevin’s family, and to my BWW family if they happen to come across this.

“ Kevin was such a great boss! I always enjoyed working with him. Always great laughs and great energy. I knew it wouldn’t be Kevin if I didn’t go in the office at the end of night hearing him play all the hip music and Afro beats. He will truly be missed. My condolences to the family!!!

“ Where do I begin? I met you in 2016 at Buffalo Wild Wings. You always believed in my hopes and dreams. You would always ask how was college going and my teaching career. Then in July, you said you were happy for me when you found out that I was pregnant. I didn't get a chance to tell you that it's a girl. I know you would've had a smart comment because you always had jokes up your sleeve. I will definitely miss your jokes, smile, and laughter. Also, I will miss you saying hey bestie, can you please make me a steak quesadilla and chipotle bbq wings (extra crispy) lol. I can't believe I'm saying this but ... Rest In Peace Big Guy 🙏 From Cece
