“Kim had a smile like no one else. She empathized and listened to anyone who talked to her, even if she was walking out of the door from work to go home after a long day. She was a wonderful woman and I am glad that she doesn't have to suffer and is in a better place. She will be missed.

“My deepest sympathies go out to her loved ones. I worked with Kim at Home Depot as a fellow bookkeeper. Kim was great! She was so smart and knowledgable. She had the greatest sense of humor that could just make you laugh for hours, and she had the best work ethic I had ever seen, so dedicated. I am truly sorry for her families lose. She will be missed.

“ We were shocked and saddened to hear that Kim had passed. I still remember her contagious smile and I still remember when she was born. What a loss.

Jerry and I have often spoke of your whole family wondering where you were. It would be great to hear from you.

Our sincere prayers are for your family's healing in this time. God be with you. Sandy and Jerry Exum
