They meant a great deal to her and made her days there some of her favorites.

Above all, Kimberly truly loved her family. She adored her siblings, her nieces and nephews, her cousins, uncles, and aunts. She loved a good family reunion and always enjoyed visiting with family every chance she could, even when getting around wasn't easy for her. “ Sending so much love to you Uncle Ron, DJ, Ross, and Sean. I will always remember Aunt Kim's infectious fun demeanor and sense of humor, and the times we'd all go bowling so many years ago. She was always the goofy, silly aunt and I will miss seeing her at family gatherings when I'm back in VA. I wish I could make it to say my goodbyes - I will keep you all in my thoughts and prayers.

*Love,

“ From the first time I met Kim at her son's wedding she made me feel like family. The second time I saw Kim was Thanksgiving of the same year. I brought a tray of Baklava to dinner. She tasted 1 piece, grabbed the tray and told everyone it was Her's and anyone who tried to take a piece would have to deal with her. From that day forward she became my biggest fan of my Baklava and I always made sure that if she was going to be at a family function, I would bring a tray. I have such wonderful memories of Kim and am thankful for all of them. I will miss our conversations and side eye glances that only she and I knew what they meant. Ronnie, DJ, Sean and Ross I am so sorry for your loss. You are all in my thoughts and prayers
