“ My sweet, beautiful angel Kirstyn, I miss you more every day. I miss you so much I can't stand the thought of it for more than a few seconds. You were the most perfect daughter a mother could hope for, and I ache to see you again. I pray you see all we've done in your honor and feel so loved and so special. You're a rare and precious girl, inside and out. -Mommy

“ You were all the sunshine in the universe. This world sucks without your cool smiles and sence of humor. I will always hurt and can never be happy again. I was the luckyist dad in the world. I cant wait to see you in heaven one day. Watch over mom sweetheart, she's changed. I'd give anything to have that last hug again. I love you Kirstyn!

“ My sweet Kirstyn. You turned my house into a home. You taught me so much about life. My heart cries for you. The pain I feel is indescribable. So many loved you. I feel so very blessed to have you in my life and in my heart. Our son loved you in a much different way than our family and it is difficult to see the pain in his eyes. You will be forever in our hearts beautiful Kirstyn. God bless you sweet baby. I love you. Thank you for sharing your life with our family. I am so happy to have met your family and friends. Your brother will continue to make you proud. He is such a strong, loving, young man. I Love You....Diane

“ I wake up this morning and wish once again this was a nightmare. I walk by your bedroom knowing you aren't in there. I still smell your perfume lingering in the hallway. I see the note I wrote on the refrigerator telling you, "You can do it. Keep moving forward!" I see the beautiful autumn leaf that I picked up on my last walk and hung by the sing on the refrigerator when I was worried about you Saturday morning. I walked when I was stressed, which was often. Sweet girl I wish you were here. I miss you. I cried in Safeway last night in the dessert aisle. We used to pick out sweets together. I could feel you there....that's because you are in my heart...

“ My thoughts and prayers go out to Kirstyn's family and friends, especially my Katrina. I will never forget holding Kirstyn in the delivery room when she was born and how she changed Katrina's life in so many ways. While I have not seen Kirstyn since she was a toddler, I know how proud Katrina has been of her and wish I could have gotten to know the fine young woman she grew up to me.

“ We cry for our loss, Kirstyn. I really don't know if you knew how many people loved you dearly. There is a deep hole in my heart that will always be void. But I know one day we will see you again...and with that, I find comfort...I love you sweet girl. I just wish I could give you a hug...

“Kirstyn, Three months have passed and still I sit here crying at your pictures missing your beautiful smile, your sweet voice, your cute laugh, and our conversations. I can still envision you sitting on the step stool as YOU LET ME cut your hair! You even liked your haircut and I can still see you checking it out in the mirror and saying I did a good job...

Oh Kirstyn...I lied...I don't cry...I sob and sob, and tears stream down my face. If there was one wish in the whole world it would be to please let you come back to us. That would be the greatest gift of all.

I go to my room to be alone so I can grieve for you...Still grieving the loss of a beautiful angel who was loved by so many. I never feel better, but the tears eventually stop...

I love you sweetest girl...

Kirsten P. is going to name her baby girl Serenity, that names reminds her of you...I thought that was beautiful..just like you.

“ I miss you so much. I still can't believe you are gone. I keep thinking about all the fun times we had together. We had so many adventures together. I still remember you coming down to my dad's house with me and us chilling in the gazebo talking. One of my favorite days was when laid out on my deck for hours just talking. You were always there when I needed a friend and there are so many good memories of our crazy nights. When we were together no matter what we were doing we made it fun. I still remember going camping and you stopping me from trying to play with the skunk. I know we had our differences at times but I always considered you my best friend. You were there for me through so much and I really wish you were still here. It hurts knowing that I won't be able to throw your 21st birthday party like we had talked about. I had planned on making it a night you would never forget. I miss you with all my heart you were like a little sister to me. I love you baby girl!!
