“ I remember Kristi teaching me how to sew a summer outfit-shorts and matching top. I made a macrame belt to go with it. Still have belt. She was so patient with me and encouraged me to continue and not give up. This was in early 1970's.
I remember waving goodbye to her and another college friend, Darlene right before they embarked on a trek out west. This was right after graduation. What a free spirit she had. I will miss her greatly.

“ Gary & I send our deepest sympathy to Kristi's family. Carmel and Benjamin we are thinking of you and wish we could be there. I remember when I first met Kristi she was such a shining light and I asked her what she knew that I did not! She shared Jesus with us. She made sure Gary & I went to a Full Gospel Business Men's meeting where both Gary & I got saved that night.

So, remembering the good times when we lived in Harker Heights, TX and you kids all played together. It was a wonderful time in our lives.

I know she will be greatly missed by so many, but she made such a difference in so many lives during her time with us.

Dan, it was great meeting you last April for the first time, and I am sorry that she is gone from you too soon. Our deepest condolences....

“ Sincere condolences to each of you, Kristi's family. Loving memories of childhood days & reconnecting online the past few years are memories that fill my heart of a beautiful lady that was loved & shared that love with family & friends throughout her earthly life. Each of us were truly blessed to have her cross our paths. God's Speed, Kristi! Your loving spirit & friendship will always be with us.

“ To the Lipe Roberts family. I am so very sorry for your loss. Kristi was truly a bright light on this earth. I met Kristi through WOW and experienced her as kind, compassionate and deeply caring person. She will missed on this earth. My favorite memory of Kristi is her smiling eyes that allowed us to see her deep beauty from the inside out. Blessings to your family and may God surround you all with His great live and comfort.

“ Both of us from large families, Kristi was one of the eldest in hers, and I one of the youngest in mine. She was like a big sister and had an unbelievable gift to make me feel special. I have never known anyone who was so positive. This was an amazing gift she shared willingly. She was a great support to me as a mother, friend, and especially when I became a young, grieving widow. Her warmth and generosity of spirit were unmatched. I mourn her loss for selfish reasons. But we know she is resting happily in the arms of the God in whom she trusted and in whom she placed her faith. I am with the Lipe and Roberts families in spirit. Dan, I am so sorry she is gone too soon from your life. She loved you so!

“ My sister, Kristi, died Friday evening. The cancer was very aggressive. A great sister. Kristi was a shining light. A world traveler that saw friends as she went. An optimist in the highest degree, with the power of God on her side. She died in her sleep, and I'm sure she woke in the arms of Jesus. She will be missed.

“ Dear Family: What sweet memories I have of Kristi. The last time I saw her was on the "Seven Churches of Revelation" in 2010. I have posted a picture from that trip on your page here. I also knew her at Lion of Judah back in the day. I know you will miss her. I have prayed for the Lord to comfort you. Blessings and Love, Cindy Sumner “Kristi was a loving and generous person. She had a zest for life and loved her God and her family. She was a caring and wonderful friend to me , when we both went thru divorce and did some single activities together with Karen Block and Pat Bernhardt. She loved to travel and share her ideas and take others advice. She was so talented with dress making and sewing and alterations. A lady with a smile always and a positive outlook even when things were not going so well. Kristi, I am a better person for having known you and you gave me strength in so many ways with some of the trials of life that you encountered. God certainly will take care of you and we are all sad to lose you, but your example and love will live on forever.
