“ *Dear sweet Kristine,
I have learned over the years that God only takes the best early,
you are one of those.
Where you are there is no pain, but you will be missed very much by your earthly family.
For now fly with the angels sweetie, you were an angel here on earth, but your work here is now finished. We have the knowledge that in time we will all be together again.
Until then, I love you.

“ I met Kristine at BYU, my first year there we roomed together in Heritage Halls and then struck out to find our own apartment. We had so many adventures together! We hiked the Y, went on a road trip to Disneyland and Las Vegas, rode the bus together, stayed up until near-dawn studying or just talking, and she shared so much of her strength of will and determination to move forward no matter the obstacle. We fell out of touch in recent years, which I regret more than I can say, but I hope one day our reunion will be one of good friends. My favorite memory which I will always cherish from when we went to Bryce Canyon together, spending nearly all day hiking. She kept in front of me most of the time, but she would look back over and over with her Kristine-grin and say, "Isn't this great?!" I finally took a picture of one of those moments. I have so many wonderful memories of our time together as friends, and hundreds of snapshots that capture her vivacious attitude, her quick smiles, her sense of humor.

Kristine taught me to be brave and her example of laughter and friendship will never be forgotten.

“ I knew Kristine only as a fresh-faced young girl in church, who was always willing to answer questions in class and would volunteer for assignments. But I was certain that she would grow up to be an outstanding adult. I am so sorry her young life was cut short, but I know she was an wonderful example for the other youth around her.
