“ Kyle was a trip. I remember when he helped me move into my house, trying to get my dresser in my room and we both started yelling "PIVOT" (those who grew up with FRIENDS will get the reference). A few months later he moved in to help me with the bills and seemed to be doing great. Unfortunately I had to ask him to leave but we kept in touch. He was always there with a quick joke or laugh. I will miss him terribly

“ Kyle as in a motorcycle accident on Mother's Day. There are no further details as of now. But we would like anyone that was close to him attend. He would want you there. This is a sad time for all of us who knew Kyle. He was an amazing friend, he was loyal, smart, funny, sweet & cocky as hell. He left behind a little boy who he loved so much, & Alex needs the support from all of us. @Nichole Leonard

“ Kyle was a good friend of my son Patrick in elementary school. He was full of life and adventure. They enjoyed running through the woods and sledding in winter. He was a good looking young man. We will miss his honest and practical personality. Blessings to his family. With love, The Mahans
