

Kyusuk Lee

December 29, 1947 - August 27, 2023

Born in Seoul, South Korea, on December 29, 1947, Kyusuk had a natural talent for building and creating with his hands and imagination. As a child during the Korean War, he built toys from found objects to the delight of his friends in the village.

After graduating from Heungkook Boys High School in 1967, he studied at Chung-Ang University before serving in the military from 1969 to 1971. Two years later, he immigrated to the United States, settling down in Northern Virginia. In 1977, he married the love of his life, Kyung Suk, and they built a beautiful life together with their children, Zeeye and Eugene.

Kyusuk opened Auto Body World in 1980 and worked tirelessly at his thriving body shop until he retired in 2005. He had an eye for detail and precision and had a passion for rebuilding antique cars. He sated his love of the outdoors by boating, golfing, and cycling.

Kyusuk loved life, excitement, and adventure. His eyes sparkled with joy, and his laugh was infectious.

He is survived by his wife Kyung Suk, daughter Zeeye, son Eugene, and older sister Kyujung Park.
