“ It's 7:30am and I'm pulling into the parking lot and (as always) I am greeted with Larry standing outside taking a break and shaking his head at me, " I beat you to work , AGAIN!!" Larry had a wonderful sense of humor and always cared for others, as a fellow Dallas Cowboys fan, we would team up and go against others. I could always depend on Larry to get me what I needed. He spoke so highly of his wife and family and often talked of retirement.....well may you forever rest in peace, Larry, and May GOD forever comfort your family in their time of grievance.

“ Uncle Larry,

You were always so full of life. I could always tell when you were near, all I had to do was follow the laughter. I love you and will forever miss you. Rest in Peace.

“ Larry was my go to guy when I needed something at PenRen...hard hat, safety vest or just to talk about the Cowboys and how they would always lose to the Redskins. And always called me "Kiddo". When I used to see him in the hallways, I always used to ask "How are you doing today" and he always replied "I'm still here". Larry, you will always still be here with us at PenRen. May you rest in peace, you will be missed.

“ I am Matt Maggard's younger sister. After 9/11 Larry took me on a tour of the Pentagon. He was a good friend to my brother Matt. What a good guy and a fun tour! My condolences to his family. No doubt in my mind he is safe with the Lord.
Sincerely, Trish Fontaine

“ One of great ones is gone- but will never be forgotten.

Larry was a very decent man. "The world could use more folks like Larry."

Larry met my son Regan one or two times when I brought him to work during school snow days. Shortly after meeting him, Larry brought in a a ton of baseball cards from home and sold them to me for "next to nothing" simply because my son mentioned he liked baseball. I always thought that was very noble thing to do.

He talked honestly and from the heart all the time. Again, the world could use more folks like Larry.

“ 5-months later and I still tear-up to read all the kinds words, thoughts and prayers for Larry. My mom past just 3 days before, so I had no idea of this site, but am happy to be able to post my memories of Larry. I was Larry's direct contracting support at PENREN, so I spent a lot of time with him learning his requirements, he'd say after he became a 'govie', “. . . well you know, Alvina, I'm not very familiar with this stuff, I was just a contractor. . . .”, then two years later, needing to purchase the same safety item, he'd say the same thing, LOL, I believe he just wanted me to hold his hand :o) Larry brought me veggies from his garden during season and when he found that my nickname was “Peaches”, he brought me the fruit a few times a week for nearly two months. Larry was the best, and as everyone said, if you needed something, he took good care of you. Rest In Peace Larry and my sincerest condolences to the family.

“ Larry was one of the greatest guys to have around the safety office and especially out on the construction sites, he knew everyone out there and made sure they were working safely. I'll never forget Larry putting on his safety gear in the morning and telling me, "son, I'm going out on-site to spread the love", meaning, he was getting ready to tour one of my construction sites and I had better get there before him. As a supervisor, Larry would always tell us, "all I want you to do is to take care of your family and do your job, in that order". You will be greatly missed my friend.

“ My thoughts and prayers are with the family. Larry and I always chatted about a myriad of different subjects and shared a quick laugh. He was particularly fond of teasing me about my Alabama roots. Rest in Peace my friend.
