“ My uncle was one of the most amazing man I have ever known. I remember going over every night to his barn when he went down and helped him fix things and that was my way of spending time with him and talking to him until dad called me home or until it got late and uncle larry was locking up the barn for the night. I do remember one night when i stayed the night with him and aunt Joanne that he made a special Ice cream cone dessert for me, which was a cone packed with ice cream with at least two scoops on top. I would go over every fourth of july when the family was there to spend time with all of them since i grew up with most of them, specially Joe since we were kids. I was always welcome in their house and always sat and chatted with them. Remember the Christmas visits either at their house or ours. I always looked forward to seeing them. I will miss those times and will miss hearing his voice when he calls dads phone since we moved away from each other. i would always try to answer dads phone when Uncle larry called so I could talk to him for a minute, thats how much i missed him. I miss him even more and will miss him every day.

Larry will be greatly missed. He was a big influence on my life as I lived with my sister Joanne and Larry for a short time before I was drafted into the Army. Larry got me and my brothers Don and Scott into the printing trade where I was able to make a living for over 30 years. A very religious man, he was a leader in the Church and set a fine example of of a devoted family man.
