

Laura "Betty" E. Croushorn

February 7, 1941 - August 30, 2020

Laura "Betty" E. Croushorn, age 79, passed-away peacefully on August 30, 2020. She was born February 7, 1941 in Nokesville, VA to Emory and Ruth Gray. She eloped in 1958 with her high school sweetheart, Shirley Lewis Croushorn, and spent 62 loving years together. They were truly soulmates and an inspiration to their sons.

Betty loved to love on people. She was a mother, grandmother, and friend to so many family and friends. She treated many people like her own helping them through love and support. Her life was a living example of kindness and compassion. She was smart and funny and valued family time. She loved to cook and play cards and she loved her cats and her birds.

Betty is survived by her husband, her brother Stuart Gray and his wife Bonnie, her sons, and their wives; James and Kathryn Croushorn and Wayne and Tracy Croushorn; and three grandchildren, Dalton, Logan and Landon Croushorn. She loved and touched our lives deeply and she will be missed.

"You don't have the power to make rainbows or waterfalls, sunsets or roses, but you do have the power to bless people by your words and smiles. You carry within you the power to make the world better."
