“ I just found out yesterday that my step brother, JR had passed away. I wish somebody would have told me sooner, but no one did. He was a bundle of joy to live with for the past 3 years, and always gave me great company. He always knew what to say to cheer me up and we always enjoyed picking on each other. I send my condolences to the rest of his family, because he will be missed greatly. Rest in peace, J.R.

“ Twenty years ago JR was my first boyfriend. We started dating not too long before his bone marrow transplant. While he was away he sent me a card and/or letter EVERY single day. If not one, I'd get two. He was loyal, a gentleman, and sweet as can be. Although the Lord did not have plans to keep us together; he put us together during that difficult time for JR. He always thanked me and told me how much it meant to him that I was there for him during that time. I am the one that was blessed though for I got to know such a sweet soul and be part of his life. My memories of the time with him will always be dear to me and he will be missed here on earth. My prayers go out to the family that he loved so very much. Rest in peace sweet JR.

“ I'm so sad and sorry to hear about JR's passing. He fought so many battles during his life on earth, but even while doing so, brought so much joy to many. I loved seeing his post on Face Book and keeping in contact with him. What a testament he was to God's healing power and a source of strength to us all. I only hope that I can touch a portion of the lives that he touched through his love and caring spirit. I pray that his family will share in JR's strength to get through these hard days. JR will forever live in our hearts here on earth and one day we will reunite with him in Gods great kingdom. My sincere and heartfelt sympathy to his mom, dad, brother and family, Janice Barrett

“ So sorry to hear about J.R's passing. He was a very courageous young man to endure everything that he went through. We know that he is in a very beautiful place now to rest in the arms of Jesus. Surrounded by love ones that have gone on before. No more pain. We will miss his beautiful smile. But we will see you again one day in Heaven. Our thoughts and prayers are with you and your family.

“ We are so sorry to hear of J.R.'s passing. He is in the arms of Jesus. Our hearts & prayers are with the Shillingburg family. J.R. always had a beautiful smile. It was nice seeing him up singing with his family at our Country Baptist church; now he can sing with the Angels. We will miss you, but we'll see you again in Heaven some day soon. ~Jeff, Ann, Kevin & Carolyn Adkins.
